Activities of Doctoral School in Economics and Innovation 2016–2018:

Some activities which are initiated and organized by University of Tartu in order to support PhD studies.

Activities which support methods learning (1. – 3.):

1. International Summer Schools (3)

2. Academic writing retreats (5) for PhD students and their supervisors

3. Special courses:
   - Econometric Analysis under Model Uncertainty (J.C.Cuaresma)
   - Problem Formulation: Formulating well-grounded research questions (A.Yakhlef)
   - Courts and Society in Transition (J.Ø.Sunde and R.Aarli)
   - International Investment Law (H.Kalmo)

4. Seminars for supervisors:
   - The Art of Doctoral Student Supervision (D.DiNitto)
   - Voice and improvisation training for supervisors (L.Põldvere)

5. Topical PhD seminars of International research teams:
   - Seminar on Macroeconomics (MJ)
   - Intellectual Property Management within Entrepreneurial Journey of the Startups (MJ+OI)
   - Comparative Private Law and EU Law (OI)
   - Topical Issues of Data Protection (OI)
   - Law and Economics in Baltic History (OI)
   - State. Religion. Society (OI)
   - Common Problems of Medical Law and Criminal Law (OI)
   - Smart goods – challenges for consumer and data protection (OI)

6. International cooperation seminars:
   - Tongji University and University of Tartu Summer School in Economics (MJ)
   - Shanghai University and University of Tartu High Impact Research Seminar (MJ)
   - Tongji University and University of Tartu Research Seminar in Economics and Business Administration (MJ)

MJ – School of Economics and Business Administration

OI – Faculty of Law